

CHARMS OF WIFE NO. 1
WELD HUSBAND, SAYS NO. 2

Scott's Wife Declares He Told Her
He Couldn't Keep Away From
First Mrs. Scott.

In a bill of particulars filed in the Supreme Court to-day in her separation suit against her husband, Lorne Albert Scott, a contractor, Mrs. Lillian Wilson Scott says that she had been married to the contractor only a month in 1914 when he remained away all night. When she demanded an explanation he told her, she alleges, that, because of his first wife had died, he revived her charms and he couldn't keep away from her.

On another occasion Mrs. Scott told the Court, she faints in the street and was carried into a garage. When she recovered her eyes first met those of her husband, who was standing near, but instead of offering her sympathy he told her "she was the meanest thing." This, Mrs. Scott considered, was bad enough, but in the next instant her husband was at a telephone asking his former wife to return to him. He turned about and asked Mrs. Scott the second to leave.

DANISH PRINCE COMES TO STUDY AGRICULTURE

Eric of Denmark Appears to Be Nice
Young Man, but King Christian
Won't Let Him Be Interviewed.

Prince Eric of Denmark, a cousin of King Christian, arrived to-day on the steamship Hellig Olav of the Scandinavian-American Line. Prince Eric is said to be a most democratic young man, and probably that was the reason the King of Denmark did not wish him to be interviewed. Anyhow, the King called the Danish Consul General in New York not to allow Eric to be talked to by reporters.

Prince Eric is going to Canada to study agriculture.

Several hundred Finns, fleeing from service in the Russian army, arrived in the steamer of the Hellig Olav.

DROWNED MAN FOUND
BY FERRY BOAT CREW

Unidentified Body Picked Up Off
Robbin's Reef—Victim May Have Leaped From Deck.

The body of a man fifty years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds, partially bald, with brown hair and gray mustache, was picked up to-day off Robbin's Reef Light-house by the crew of the ferryboat Bronx. It is believed the man jumped from the deck of the ferryboat.

The body was taken to St. George's, and later removed to McInley's morgue in Stapleton. In the man's pockets were a card of "L. Anselson, 45 East Broadway, New York," a handkerchief with the initials "C" and gold eyeglasses. He wore a gray suit and overcoat of Hilton make, a white shirt with black stripes, soft white collar and black necktie.

JUDGE HOUGH A WITNESS.

Swears Safford Appeal Papers Were Altered After Certification.

Judge Hough of the United States District Court was a witness to-day before Wallace Macfarlane, sitting as a referee to take testimony regarding the charges that certain passages of the record in the trial of Frank D. Safford had been altered in the certified record attached to a bill of particulars in Safford's appeal. Safford was convicted of perjury in the "Tanner-Volpe" controversy case. David Slade of Slade & Slade, Miss Tanner's attorney, denied he had altered the record, and said he was being humiliated by the United States District Attorney.

Judge Hough testified that, out of sympathy for Slade, he had aided in making out the bill of particulars. He said he went over every page of the record and the interpellations, including the granting of an important exception to Slade, were not in the record when he certified to them. The Judge pointed out the corrections which he himself had made and others made by the stenographer, and showed they were in different handwriting from the entries into which the referee is inquiring.

The hearings closed with Judge Hough's testimony.

Found Dead From Gas in His Room

Henry Armand, a clerk in a delicatessen store, was found dead in bed this morning in his room at No. 25 Third Avenue. One of the gas jets was turned fully on. The police believe he accidentally turned on a gas jet.

Bracelet Watches

Studded With Rhinestones
Bought to Sell at $10;
Sale Tuesday at

$5

Some of the most beautiful watches of this kind that we have ever shown—and were we to go into the market today we would not be able to duplicate them for less than tomorrow's special sale price.

Every watch a beauty, and fully guaranteed.

Of course, there's a reason for this low price. We bought a number of these watches to sell during the holiday season at $10 each. They sold well, but the demand wasn't as great as it should have been.

Out they go tomorrow at $5 each, because it is not our policy to let merchandise linger.

Quantity limited. Come early.
